

From London to Muscat (Part 3)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions, except for the third one, using full sentences.

1. To which city did the first dotted line connect London?

2. What could Tom see halfway along the first dotted line?

3. Altogether Tom has seen the names of four cities beginning with A. Write these cities in alphabetical order.

4. What was Tom most looking forward to?

5. Why did Beth sit bolt upright?

6. Imagine that you are Tom. On separate piece of paper describe how you feel about having to move seats.

Notes for teachers

Help the children to read this passage and ensure that they understand the story. When considering the last question encourage the children to try to think like Tom: Who would you be cross with? What feelings would you have inside you? Do you think it's right that you have been made to move? This process will help the pupils understand the themes, causes and points of view within the text.
